

Sarah Malecki , MD

Resident in Internal Medicine

Sarah Malecki is an internal medicine resident at the University of Toronto and has been working with Dr. Bassett for the last 10 years. She completed a BSc at Wilfrid Laurier University, and MSc in Cellular and Molecular Medicine at the University of Ottawa. She was also a respite support worker for children and adults with developmental disabilities through the Victorian Order of Nurses (VON) before completing her MD degree at the University of Toronto. Her research interests include studying genetic factors, especially the 22q11.2 deletion, in the development of complex conditions (e.g., obesity, type 2 diabetes) in young adults.

Sarah is a recipient of the 2024 Vanier Canada Graduate Scholarship, the Canadian equivalent of the Rhodes Scholarship.
